State of the Month

Sourav Ganguly, born on July 8, 1972, is a former Indian cricketer and captain who transformed Indian cricket with his leadership and aggressive play. Known as the "Prince of Kolkata," he was a prolific batsman and later served as the President of the BCCI.

Kolkata, the capital of West Bengal, is a vibrant city known for its rich cultural heritage, colonial architecture, and literary traditions. Often called the "City of Joy," it is a hub for arts, education, and politics in eastern India. Key landmarks include the Victoria Memorial, Howrah Bridge, and the Indian Museum.
